

Federal Funding Cuts Force Creative Workaround for Counseling

When Three Birds Alliance made the incredibly difficult decision to pause the counseling program for 2026 because of a loss of over $150,000 in federal funding, one of the biggest concerns was making sure survivors didn't lose access to therapy.

Quick and creative thinking allowed us to adapt and work together to keep services available, and we built a partnership with Bespoke Therapy Collective that maintained continuity for the clients we serve. With two former Three Birds Alliance employees as well as some former counseling interns as part of the collective, clients were able to continue meeting with the same therapists with whom they had already developed a rapport.

Since our partnership began, we've been able to continue supporting survivors by:

- Providing a counseling option at no cost through Bespoke's graduate clinical training program.
- Providing onsite counseling at both our emergency and extended stay shelters with one of Bespoke's counseling graduate interns.
- Providing a Pay-What-You-Can option for clients who need continued care beyond the internship model.

Bespoke also supports Three Birds Alliance's efforts by offering consultation for staff and volunteers, and by participating in our extensive volunteer training program twice per year.

We are grateful for our partnership with Bespoke Therapy Collective and thrilled that our clients can continue to receive the support they need without interruption.

Hygiene Drive

Every Item Donated Makes a Meaningful Impact

Many individuals and families escaping domestic violence arrive at our shelters with little or nothing of their own. In these moments, basic hygiene products—items many of us use every day without a second thought—become essential for restoring dignity, comfort, confidence, and a sense of normalcy during a difficult transition.

We are happy to partner with Alpine Bank in Aurora this month to host a hygiene collection drive! We hope you'll help make this drive a success by visiting the Aurora branch of Alpine Bank at 2000 Chester St. with your donation of any of the following items:

- full size toothpaste
- full size shampoo
- full size conditioner
- full size lotion
- women's and teen boys' full size bodywash
- women's and teen boys' deodorant
- women's & teen boys' shaving cream
- baby hygiene products
- shower shoes/flip flops

Your donation can provide hope, care, and reassurance to survivors as they begin rebuilding their lives. Every item donated makes a meaningful impact.

Alpine Bank in Aurora is located at 2000 Chester St. on the corner of Chester St. and Montview Blvd.

Corks For A Cause

New Additions Add Flair to Our Event

We are thrilled to bring about some exciting changes to this year's Corks For A Cause and excited to announce that our event is moving to a brand-new location!

This year's event will be held at Upper Larimer in Denver's RiNo neighborhood – Denver's most trendy arts and industrial-chic district filled with warehouses, vibrant street murals, craft breweries, and boutique shops.

Upper Larimer bills itself as a world-class restoration masterpiece that combines timeless character with modern luxury that was purposefully redesigned to serve as Denver's leading public event space. Our event will flow seamlessly into this new trendy space.

But don't worry – the classic elements of Corks For A Cause that you love aren't going away. Our event will include a wine tasting with an incredible array of wines provided by Heritage Wine and Liquor, a plated dinner, live music, a large silent auction and an exciting live auction.
